FINAL CLEARANCE RECEIVED!
I leave for South Africa on December 26th
for another 4 year mission term.

ONE CANDLE OF LIFE

"I have but one candle of life to burn, and I would rather burn it out in a land filled with darkness than in a land flooded with light." —John Keith Falconer

The 2014 New Year will mark seven years since I first set foot on African soil! During the year of 2007, I spent six months in South Africa to confirm if God had called me to full-time missions. God showed me how my light could make a much bigger impact if I were to become a missionary.

Jesus said, "Let your light shine..." (Matt. 5:16). The light of Jesus burns within us. May we not be selfish and only keep it to ourselves when others are living in spiritual darkness.

When faced with darkness, fear may arise but Isaiah 42:16 says, "...I will turn the darkness into light before you..." We don't need to fear the journey ahead if we know the light of the world—Jesus!

THANK YOU FOR SENDING ME AS A LIGHT INTO THE DARKNESS!

"People who do not know the Lord ask why in the world we waste our lives as missionaries. They forget that they too are expending their lives ... and when the bubble has burst, they will have nothing of eternal significance to show for the years they have wasted." — Nate Saint, missionary martyr

The biggest hindrance to the missionary task is self.
Self that refuses to die.
Self that refuses to sacrifice.
Self that refuses to give.
Self that refuses to go.
