Students Strike!

Since arriving in South Africa, I've been seeking for an open door to reach the university students. While visiting one of our churches, I met the main librarian of Tshwane University of Technology (TUT). He helped organize a meeting for me with the school administration. I was hoping to obtain permission to be on the campuses, but God gave me so much more! The administration asked that I help develop the spiritual programs and train spiritual leaders for all TUT campuses in South Africa (8 campus locations). This is bigger than I ever dreamed!

In August I was able to speak to student spiritual leaders at an Inter-Faith Training. Then for several weeks I have been meeting with the Deputy Director of Extracurricular Development, Mr. Eric Sebokedi, strategizing how to train the spiritual leaders on campus.

Mr. Eric Sebokedi

During the month of September, I was scheduled to visit every campus and meet with their administration and student leaders. However, on Tuesday September 9th students began a strike because their promised financial assistance was not being realized. They have now burned a bus, 18 cars, and set the gate to the main campus on fire. This has prevented students, teachers, and myself from coming to the campuses. As I type this, the university has been temporarily closed.

Please keep the university and students in your prayers. Since beginning the university ministry, I realize now more than ever before how I am in a spiritual battle. Your prayers are greatly needed and appreciated!
