Let's reach Equatorial Guinea together

We are excited to officially announce that we will be serving as missionaries to the African country of Equatorial Guinea (E.G.).

E.G. is the only Spanish speaking country in all of Africa. Russ already speaks "street" Spanish and Sarah took four years in High School. This is a good beginning, but we will still need to go to language school. We want to be fluent enough to teach and preach in Spanish.

Currently, there are no AGWM missionaries living in E.G. Missionaries Carrol and Gayle Deal pioneered the work here but have now retired. They have offered to return and help introduce us to the existing church upon our arrival. The church here is young and there is still a great need. Russ will have many opportunities to assist with church planting and evangelism. Sarah looks forward to developing the youth and university ministry.

Thank you for your prayers and support!
